About Chautauqua: chautauqua.org

NEW OLD TIME CHAUTAUQUA presents a VIRTUAL VAUDEVILLE CELEBRATION on Sunday, June 14th at 6pm PDT to the communities of Bellingham, Port Townsend, Port Angeles, Forks, and the rest of the World!

The New Old Time Chautauqua's magic traveling troupe presents a live Virtual Vaudeville Celebration (VVC) each from their own homes, that will combine Circus, Music, Magic, Vaudeville, and the Arts to the communities of Bellingham, Forks, Port Townsend and all over the world. The VVC celebrates Humanity on Sunday, June 14th, 2020 at 6pm Pacific Daylight Time, just one week before the Summer Solstice and the longest day of 2020. All proceeds will go to help NOTC fulfill its continuing mission of encouraging community through entertainment, education, and laughter.

New Old Time Chautauqua had to cancel its benefit shows slated for April 17-19, 2020, and also had to cancel its plans for this summer's tour to Wisconsin to register voters for the November general elections. Now, NOTC is going to bring that big show to the little screen!

ABOUT CHAUTAUQUA:

Since 1981, NOTC has brought its exuberant Chautauqua magic to rural and underprivileged communities, tribal groups, boys and girls clubs, incarcerated citizens, and juvenile detention centers throughout the Greater Northwest, including Washington, Oregon, Northern California, Idaho, Montana, Alaska, British Columbia, Alberta, and even New Orleans, after Hurricane Katrina. NOTC travels for a month each summer to collaborate with diverse communities to share educational workshops. NOTC is a not-for-profit intergenerational all-volunteer organization of educators and entertainers.

ABOUT NOTC AND VIRTUAL ENTERTAINMENT:

NOTC is looking forward to making the most of the live virtual platform. It is the intention of the show's Director, Flying Karamazov Brother and NOTC Co-Founder, Paul Magid, to make this Virtual Vaudeville Celebration a memorable and entertaining experience for the whole family.

NOTC is excited to explore Live Virtual Entertainment and Education for the coming year and to continue to share and spread the love of community even in these times of social distancing.

All donations are tax deductible, as NOTC is a 501 (c) 3 not-for-profit organization.
